

Exploring Careers Through Music™

PUBLIC TALK AND CAREER EXPO

Saturday | February 24, 2024
 5:00pm – Expo Commences
 6:00pm – Public Talk and Musical Performances
 8:00pm – Expo Concludes

Location: GPF Hall, Micronesia Mall
 Suite 101 & 102 - Concourse 1 near TROVE and Max's Restaurant

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Exploring Careers Through Music™

Exhibitors

Soka University
 A US accredited liberal arts university in California offering full-ride 4-year scholarships to eligible Guam/CNMI students. Meet with representatives and ask questions.

US Marine Corps
 Musician Enlistment Option Program. Meet with USMC recruiters and see how they can get you to become a member of the USMC bands.

Exploring Careers Through Music™

Inaugural Event

Saturday, February 24, 2024
 GPF Hall, Concourse 1 - Micronesia Mall

5:00pm Expo Opens
 6:00pm Public Talk and Musical Performances

featuring

Dr. Shirley “Sam” Mabini-Young, Ph.D.
Former Senator & Former Director, Guam Department of Labor I Singer

Performing
Thank you for the Music! by ABBA

Dr. Jerry Castro, MD
Otolaryngologist I Drummer

performing
Superstition by Stevie Wonder along with Louise Borja (vocals), Jake Calvo (guitar) and son Xander Castro (bass)

Ms. Hannah Sto. Niño
Medical Laboratory Technologist I Pianist

performing
Everytime I feel the Spirit Arr. by Dino Kartsonakis

8:00pm Expo Concludes

This event will be recorded by PBS Guam. Kindly silence all electronic devices during the public talk and musical performances. Si Yu'os Ma'ase!

